

ALEXANDRIA, VA.

SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 22, 1882.

Mr. DEZENDORF, the republican member of the House of Representatives from the Norfolk district, would not submit to the yoke of General Mahone—a new convert to republicanism. He thereby fell under the displeasure of the General. But he preserved his own self-respect and won the respect of others, and has been renominated by acclamation by the republican convention of his district. Mr. Jorgensen, the republican member from the Petersburg district, on the contrary, surrendered both his political principles and his manhood to the General at the first demand. He has lost the respect of everybody, and, what is more, he is worse than his renomination, it is said, will not be permitted by the man to gain whose favor he has made so great a sacrifice. He has been promised the support of one county in his district, and may possibly get that of one or two others, but knowing Mahoneites say he will have to go.

It was boldly affirmed in the U. S. Senate yesterday that the members of the commerce committee of that body and of the conference committee in the river and harbor bill had shamelessly provided for their own States and as shamelessly failed to provide for other States, that there were similar provisions on the report of the conference committee, and that the whole bill was a scandal. Such charges in the earlier and better days of the republic would have produced a profound sensation throughout the country, but they are so common nowadays that though known to be founded upon fact they are passed by as matters of little or no consequence. Such a condition is not only unfavorable to the morals of the country, but is by no means conducive to its material welfare.

Mr. BLACKFORD's communication, which appears in to-day's GAZETTE, will, we are sure, be read with interest by all who take pride in the maintenance of the reputation of Virginia's great institution of learning, and the facts as stated by him will do much to counteract the impression prevalent that the University in the future will be under baneful influence. We are glad to know that the institution will be just as worthy of public confidence as before, so long as its present corps of instructors remain.

Mr. BUTLER's remarks in the Senate and Mr. Robinson's, in the House yesterday, though entirely justified by the provocation, show plainly enough that the members of Congress are becoming irritated by the unnecessary prolongation of the session, are therefore predisposed to anger, and are excited thereby by causes which earlier in the session they might have deemed unworthy of notice. Dog days' sessions are beneficial neither to the manners nor the morals of Congressmen.

NOTWITHSTANDING the heavy fine imposed by a court in New York upon Gen. Curtis for collecting money from government employees for election purposes, such collections will not be impeded, for the certainty of being removed in case the assessments are not paid will induce every office holder to avoid that risk by taking the lesser one incurred by breaking the laws of his country.

FROM EGYPT.

All the French ships have left Alexandria and the United States flag ship has gone to Brindisi. A rifle regiment have occupied a fort four hundred yards outside of the Rosetta Gate.

The position in regard to the water supply is becoming alarming. There has been a sensible fall of the Mahmoudieh Canal of two inches, and efforts are to be made to blow up the obstructions so as to allow a free flow of water.

The Alexandria correspondent of the London Times says: On the evacuation of Alexandria Arabi Pacha issued the following proclamation:

"Murders: At the Khedive's instigation the English killed with the sword in revenge the Egyptians who were left to guard the city. The Khedive remains at night with his women about among the English, and returns to the shore in the daytime to order a continuance of the slaughter. Therefore I issue my order to continue raising soldiers."

A second proclamation of Arabi says: "The Khedive has imprisoned his ministers at Alexandria in order that they may be instruments in English hands. The telegrams dispatched by Ragheb Pacha, authorizing a cessation of the military preparations were forcibly extorted from him, and are, therefore, invalid. An irreconcilable war exists between us and the English."

The notables, at a meeting at Cairo, have adopted a resolution declaring that the Khedive, having violated the constitution, is a traitor, and have deposed him. They have also issued a proclamation declaring war with England and summoning all good Moslems to fight against her.

A correspondent at Alexandria states that Arabi's camp is visible from the tower of a house at Ramleh. His position, on a narrow strip of land, flanked by two lakes, is very strong. Thirty-six Europeans have been massacred there by order of Arabi.

There is with Arabi Pacha a Swiss adventurer named Vincet. It is notorious that he has done more than anybody else to bring about the recent disasters. When caught he will be dealt with summarily. A few days before the bombardment he was ejected from the French consulate as a spy.

M. de Lesseps has telegraphed from Alexandria to Paris that immediate action is necessary especially to protect the Suez Canal, and that, awaiting the result of the conference is ridiculous.

FROM WASHINGTON.

[Special Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22, 1882.—It is understood to-day that postmaster Cochran of Culpeper county, Virginia, either has resigned or contemplates doing so, in consequence of some asserted connection with the Star route cases, probably in the way of being bondsman for some of the contractors, and that he is trying to have a member of his family appointed in his place, but that the probability is that it will be given to a son of Judge Bell.

Postmaster General Howe in reply to a letter from Congressman Robertson of Louisiana asking him to exclude the Louisiana Lottery from the privileges of the mail, replies that the lottery company referred to is legalized by the State of Louisiana, and is therefore entitled to the same rights and immunities as any other business association.

A prominent republican from the Valley of Virginia who is a delegate elect to the straight republican State convention of Virginia which will meet on the 26th, was at the Capitol this morning. He says that from what he sees and hears he is sure the convention will nominate a candidate for Congressman at large, and take steps for a thorough and complete reorganization of the party upon true republican foundation, and that he will advocate that cause.

The republicans in the House this morning filibustered and refused to vote, thereby leaving the House without a quorum, in order to defeat an amendment to the bill for admitting free duty materials used in the construction of ships engaged in foreign commerce, which amendment provided that the benefits of the bill shall apply also to vessels engaged in the coast trade.

It is said by the lobbyists that there is nothing new in the charges of bribery and corruption in connection with the passage of the Texas Pacific railroad bill, and that the same accusations have been previously made. Others say, however, that the charges can be sustained, and that there is documentary evidence to prove that several members of the House and four of the Senate, some of whom still hold their positions, are implicated. The experience of such matters, however, is that the more Congressmen implicated the less chance there is of any body's being detected, and the greater chance of nothing being done in the way of exposing them, and of a white-washing report.

A Southern democratic Senator who had recently paired with a Northern republican colleague, at the latter's request, and remained so for two weeks, asked him this morning to return the favor. The response was, "I suppose I'll have to do so." "No you won't," said the democrat, turning from him and seeking a pair in another quarter.

Judge Alexander Rives, of the Western District of Virginia, retires on full pay. The name of his successor has not yet transpired. Mr. Miller, of Pennsylvania, was made sick by the loss of Senator Butler administered to him yesterday and has left the city. Senator Johnston will go to Richmond to-night and be absent several days, and probably for the rest of the session.

The Kendall bond business is considered here as the most disgraceful affair, in a small way, that has occurred in the whole matter of the Virginia debt, and as showing in glaring colors the character of the men into whose hands the monetary interests of the State have fallen. It is understood that the rejected bonds will cost the State $20,000. It is reported here to-day that the Court of Appeals of Virginia, now in session at Wytheville, has refused to sustain the appeal taken by Attorney General Blair from the recent injunction of Judge Wellford, restraining the State from appropriating the $500,000 received from the sale of the A. M. & O. R. R. to any other purpose than the payment of the State's bonds.

The impression is becoming general that the tax bill will not pass at this session of Congress, though it may pass the Senate without the amendment providing for an increase in the duty on hoop iron.

The Senate to-day passed the bill giving Mrs. Garfield the full amount of her husband's salary for one year, less the amount he had drawn.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the Times."

It is announced that 10,000 British troops will be sent to Egypt under command of General Sir Garnet Wolseley.

There were one hundred and thirty-one failures in the United States during the past week.

W. J. Wilcox & Co., one of the largest lead refining corporations in New York, suspended yesterday.

Three English steamships with passengers and some immigrants were among the foreign arrivals at Baltimore yesterday.

The entire St. Heller's herd of Jersey cattle, imported in 1881, were sold at auction in New York yesterday. The prices ranged from $35 to $625.

A memorial has been received by the House Judiciary Committee from a man named Newell, detailing a story of bribery and fraud by which the Texas Pacific Land Grant bill was passed.

It is announced from Philadelphia that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has abandoned all idea of purchasing the charter and franchises of the Philadelphia and Chester Railroad for its through line.

At New Windsor, N. Y., on Thursday evening a wagon containing two women and five children was struck by a locomotive and all were more or less injured. A babe, a few months old, was thrown thirty feet away, but, except being stunned a few moments, was unharmed.

The third instalment of foreign miners—about fifty in number, mostly Germans, for the Consolidation Coal Company, arrived at Cumberland yesterday, and were accompanied from the city to Eckhart by a police escort of fifteen men. On arrival at Eckhart they were refused to remain, saying they were ignorant of the fact that they were to replace strikers. They were sent back.

Church Difficulty.

It is stated that Rev. M. C. Stanton, of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Cocke's, N. Y., has begun suit against Bishop McInerney, of Albany, to restrain the latter from preventing Father Stanton from officiating as pastor of the church. The immediate cause of the trouble was in regard to the last offices to be performed for one of his parishioners, a Mrs. Purcell, for whom he refused to say mass after having said the same for the latter part of her final sickness. The Purcell family took the matter to the Bishop, and he wrote to Father Stanton, and sent a priest from Albany in case of Father Stanton's refusal to comply with the Bishop's direction to perform the funeral rites. Father Stanton refused, and also declined to open the church, which was then forcibly entered and the service performed by the bishop's representative. Father Stanton was cited before the bishop, and, proving unsubmitive, was suspended and silenced on Sunday morning. Father Walsh, of the cathedral, and Father Walsh, appeared and demanded the keys of the church from Stanton. They delivered a letter from the bishop, which Father Stanton refused to accept, and the request for the keys. Entrance to the church was then effected and service was held with Father Walsh as pastor of the parish. Father Stanton denies many of the charges against him, and claims that he has been misrepresented and unjustly dealt with, and hence the suit.

The Addison-Garland Tragedy.

Richard Garland, who killed Joseph Addison in Lunenburg county, has subscribed to the following statement of the affair, prepared by W. W. Boswell, a friend of the late Joseph Addison, and is as follows:

"From the letters which had passed between Garland and Addison, both of them had anticipated a difficulty, and prepared themselves for it in case no amicable settlement could be made. Garland armed himself with a four-barrel thirty-two calibre pistol, and Addison with a five-shot thirty-two calibre pistol. After Mr. Addison was informed at the mill by Mr. Boswell that Mr. Garland was in the public road he proceeded to meet Garland, being accompanied by three friends, Messrs. O'Grain, Eames and Jones. Mr. Addison and friends walked some thirty yards ahead of Mr. Boswell, Garland's friend. Mr. Boswell commenced to recite the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr. Boswell then recited the whole cause of the misunderstanding between Garland and Addison, with the purpose of having the matter settled without a difficulty between the principals. Before Mr. Boswell had got into the merits of the case Mr. Addison and his friends halted and engaged Mr. Boswell in conversation. Mr.